

THE LAYMAN'S VIEW

Who in the world has the answers?

*There are almost as many seminaries as denominations.
Can they all be right?*

What The Layman's View is about, is not at all the result of "a" professor or denomination, but rather independent study free from commentaries or traditional thought. If what was found fits tradition, fine, but if discoveries go against tradition, I pledged to change my mind. So, the idea of finding original intent became the focus.

A new paradigm of Christian fellowship and service is growing. We invite you along.

The Layman's View continues to expand. We are excited about going on more radio stations and satellites for international reach.

A Blog will also be added in order to help keep us connected and on top of what the Holy Spirit is doing among us in Christian Service.

Thank you for your support. Your prayers, comments, donations and sharing with others. If you are interested in having me for a local service, broadcast guest or special event speaker, please contact me direct by calling 940-765-3275.

Who am I?

Who am I to take on subjects such as "Temple Wrongs", "Divine Reality", "Making of an Apostle" and more?

An excerpt from "The Layman's View" for January 12, 2014 -- "There are moments that change our lives. We know that life will never be the same because of something remarkable that happened, a decision we make, a diagnosis pronounced or what another person has done to or for us."

You can hear more from our live broadcasts as well as eventually be able to order messages direct from our website. Stay tuned for more exciting developments with "The Layman's View".
